Experience the Wonder & Warmth Out West

There is no better way to experience the pristine natural wonders, spectacular landscapes and ancient cultures of Western Australia than to hit the wide open road. A self-drive holiday allows you to travel at your own pace and to construct an itinerary all of your own.

Fitzgerald River National Park, Esperance

Australia's largest state is home to some of the world's most spectacular natural environments, which include many plant and animal species that aren't found anywhere else on Earth. WA has three World Heritage-listed destinations at Purnululu National Park (the Bungle Bungle Range), Ningaloo Reef and Shark Bay.

The state's reputation for spectacular beaches, unique landscapes and vast outback vistas is well deserved, but dig a little deeper and you may well be surprised by what else you find. WA is a year-round destination with a range of climates and experiences to suit the tastes of all kinds of travellers.

WA is fringed by over 12,500 kilometres of breathtaking coastline where you can meet dolphins, turtles, dugongs, whale sharks and migrating whales, and have the chance to explore stunning coral reefs. If you prefer to stay on land there is a huge diversity of unique wildlife to meet, including the most photogenic marsupial in the world – the quokkas of Rottnest Island / Wadjemup.

There are culinary delights to be explored across the state thanks to an abundance of farm-fresh produce used to create a diverse fusion of flavours that reflects WA's multicultural influences.

Experience and learn about the art, storytelling and deep spiritual connections to Country of WA's First Nations people. Representing some of the oldest continuous cultures on Earth, their ancient traditions are woven into the very fabric of the land.

Immerse yourself in the vibrant cities and towns across WA, each with their own flair. There are few places in the world offering visitors such a rich contrast of experiences.

Come spring, the outback bursts into a kaleidoscope of colours, as a breathtaking display of over 12,000 wildflower species transforms the landscape across the state.

To truly get a sense of WA's scale and beauty, there is nothing like hitting the road. Create your own holiday via the state's expansive and well maintained network of toll-free roads. If you are seeking even more adventure, take on one of the iconic off-road routes that will take you through some of the world's most remote areas.

This guide is designed to give you everything you need to plan your self-drive adventure around WA. No matter how long you have to spend or what your budget is, you can plan a trip that will create memories to last a lifetime.

Acknowledgement of Country

We wish to acknowledge the Traditional Owners of the many lands and language groups throughout Western Australia and recognise their continuing strong connection to land, waters and community. We pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders both past and present and to the Aboriginal communities of today.

Planning Your WA Adventure

Western Australia is generally safe and well serviced with amenities for tourists, but you should plan ahead, especially when heading to remote regions or into harsh terrains, which might be unfamiliar to visitors.

RESEARCH

Get to know the regions, national parks and local conditions before you visit by conducting research online. Check dbca.wa.gov.au for alerts and contact the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions for up-to-date track conditions, water levels and fire danger. Go to bom.gov.au for current weather conditions. Local shire offices provide total fire ban information and latest road conditions. ABC Local Radio broadcasts regular alerts when areas are threatened by emergencies.

PLAN AHEAD

WA is much larger than most people realise, so it is important to know how far away your intended destinations are and how long it will take you to drive there. Tourism WA and RAC WA provide a range of road maps and suggested itineraries. Make sure you have packed gear suitable for your destination. Make checklists and follow them – what to pack, what to do when arriving at and departing from a caravan park or campsite, list of tools, spares, daily vehicle and caravan checks.

EQUIPMENT

Ensure your equipment is appropriate, in good condition and you know how to use it. Take essential supplies such as a first aid kit, torch, matches, extra fuel, food and water in case of unexpected delays. Travel light – it is kinder to your vehicle, reduces fuel consumption, minimises packing and unpacking, and simplifies your life.

MOBILE PHONE COVERAGE

There are many areas of WA in which your mobile phone won't work, and in remote areas passing cars can be few and far between. If you are travelling off-road, look at investing in a satellite phone and importantly let someone know where you are going before you head off.

NOTIFY PEOPLE YOU TRUST

Tell a trusted and responsible person where you are going, what you are doing, how often you will be in contact and when you expect to return.

DRINKING WATER

The availability of water in parts of WA, especially for drinking, cannot be guaranteed. Always carry enough for your own needs; don't expect to find water supplies in natural watercourses. Treat any available water to make it safe for consumption unless it is indicated that it is safe to drink. Carry and drink three to four litres of water per person per day.

SETTING UP CAMP

Use designated campgrounds/caravan parks and choose your site carefully – level ground, no sharp objects, no ant nests. Check the prevailing wind direction for placement of tents, stoves, awnings and other equipment. Overhanging branches can come crashing down on a hot or windy night – gum trees are the worst offenders – so be cautious in your choice of site. Never camp in 'dry' riverbeds or any other place where water could channel during rain. Be cautious in tidal flats, make sure your camp is above the high tide level and always stay croc-wise.

WEATHER AND SUN PROTECTION

Be prepared for unexpected changes in weather. Wild, wet winters, cyclones, freezing nights and scorching summer days are common in some parts of the state. WA's vast size means that the seasons can be very different across the state, from the tropical north to the Mediterranean south. Consider visiting during mild times of the year.

Many First Nations people follow their own calendars, such as the six Noongar seasons in WA's South West region, which can be a more accurate guide as to what to expect. Always wear a hat, long sleeves and SPF50+ sunscreen, even on overcast days, and make sure you stay hydrated at all times.

BUSHFIRES

Bushfires are extremely dangerous and common year-round in WA. They can start without warning and spread rapidly. If you see or smell signs of a fire act immediately to put your safety first. Don't wait and see, as the consequences can be catastrophic. In case of bushfire call 000, contact the local Parks and Wildlife office and listen for alerts on ABC Local Radio.

CYCLONES

Cyclone season officially runs from November to April, with the coastline north of Exmouth being most prone to experiencing the strong winds and heavy rain associated with a cyclone event. On average, about two cyclones cross the coast per year, one of which is severe. In the event of a cyclone warning check dfes.wa.gov.au and listen for alerts on ABC Local Radio.

WILDLIFE

While Australia is home to many dangerous animals, serious incidents are rare. The vast majority of animal encounters on land or in the water are safe if you treat animals with respect and avoid approaching or feeding any wildlife.

Snakes generally avoid human contact. Wearing boots and loose pants can protect areas most at risk of a bite. If you are bitten, immobilise the bite area to avoid the spread of venom and seek immediate medical assistance.

Tick and insect bites and stings are best avoided by wearing long, loose, light-coloured clothing and using insect repellents. Check for the presence of ticks on your skin, clothes and equipment during and after bush visits.

Jellyfish including the potentially lethal box jellyfish can be present in WA waters. The box jellyfish are most prevalent in tropical waters from November to April. If you do swim, snorkel or dive in high risk areas, wear a full-length stinger/wet suit and if you are stung, douse liberally with vinegar and seek urgent medical advice.

Sharks can be sighted along all of WA's beautiful beaches. Popular beaches are regularly patrolled and sometimes beaches are temporarily closed if a shark has been sighted or an incident has occurred. Swim at patrolled beaches and inside shark nets where possible.

Saltwater crocodiles live in a variety of habitats in the far north (Kimberley region), including coastal waters near beaches and offshore islands. Crocs are common and deadly so heed all risk warning signs. If you are unsure contact the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions office.

TRAVEL TO ABORIGINAL COMMUNITIES

When visiting remote and regional areas, please be aware that you may need to apply for a permit to travel through Aboriginal reserves, and/or pay for access to certain native title determination areas. Check with the community before leaving and heed the current advice before you travel at your nearest visitor centre or at wa.gov.au.

Koombana Bay, Bunbury

Respect WA's wilderness and minimise your impact on the country.

Make sure you are prepared for the local conditions before you depart. Where possible travel on gazetted roads and stay in designated campgrounds/caravan parks. Use your own water supplies when possible; try not to deplete water supplies in remote areas. Never bathe with soap, shampoo hair or wash clothes or dishes in rivers, lakes or the ocean and use biodegradable soap, dishwashing liquid and shampoo.

Take all rubbish with you when you leave and if your caravan or motorhome has an on-board toilet, only empty it at designated dump points installed in caravan parks and some townsites. Never empty a chemical toilet in the bush or in a biodegradable toilet such as those available in some national parks.

Don't take souvenirs such as wildflowers, coral, shells, rocks or fossils and leave property, gates and equipment as you found them.

Always check with dfes.wa.gov.au before lighting a campfire to ensure the area you are travelling in does not have a fire ban in place. Build campfires in a small enclosed space and use fire pits or previous campfire sites. Keep fires small; build them away from trees and dry bush and extinguish them with water at night. Only use wood provided or collect dead wood without damaging undergrowth or live bush.

Don't approach, touch or feed wild birds or animals. They can be unpredictable and may inflict injuries. Human germs and food may make them sick. Respect WA's unique environment and keep it pristine for future generations to enjoy.

THE LEAVE NO TRACE PRINCIPLES

1. Plan ahead and prepare.
2. Travel and camp on firm ground.
3. Dispose of waste correctly.
4. Leave what you find.
5. Minimise the impact of campfire (when permitted).
6. Respect wildlife.
7. Be considerate of hosts and other visitors.

Safe Driving in WA

ROAD CONDITIONS

Always check road conditions before departure as rain can make some tracks and roads impassable. Not all country roads are sealed; they can be gravel, dirt and sand surfaces. Vehicles on these roads create dust clouds making visibility poor. Keep your distance from the car in front and be prepared for dust and stones from cars travelling in the opposite direction. Do not brake suddenly on gravel roads, as you are likely to skid and lose control – slow down and take care on unsealed roads. Many sealed roads also have gravel edges – drivers can easily lose control of their vehicle if they veer into them at high speed.

HAZARDS

Watch for animals such as kangaroos, cattle and large birds that often settle on the road. Animals are more active around dusk and dawn and are often confused by the sound of a vehicle. If a large animal suddenly appears on the road in front of you, brake firmly and sound your horn. Do not try to swerve around them as you are likely to lose control or roll over. Avoid driving at night when possible.

TOWING

When towing a caravan, trailer or boat, know the legal load limit for your vehicle and make sure your load is well-secured. If your car and caravan is more than 7.5 metres long, you must keep at least 200 metres behind any similar car/caravan or long vehicle on all roads outside built-up areas, unless you are overtaking. The legal speed limit outside built-up areas for a vehicle towing a trailer or caravan, unless otherwise signposted, is 100 kilometres per hour.

DOWNLOAD THE TOWING GUIDE

ROAD SAFETY TIPS

- To drive in WA you must hold a current driver's licence from your state, territory or country and carry it with you always.
- Always make sure your vehicle and caravan are in top mechanical condition before you set off on your adventure.
- Use a current road map. Do not rely on mobile devices.
- Be sure to carry plenty of extra food, fuel, water and vehicle spares, especially when on remote tracks. If your vehicle breaks down or cannot be driven, always stay with it. It is much easier to spot a vehicle during an aerial search.
- Take extra care around road trains. Be patient, maintain a safe distance and only overtake if you are sure it is safe.
- Do not drive tired. Take rest stops every couple of hours and swap drivers regularly.
- Concentrate on what you are doing and minimise distractions.
- Drive with extra care while towing, especially when braking, cornering, overtaking and parking. Be aware that it is much heavier and may be wider than a normal vehicle.
- Overtake with caution, especially passing large vehicles.
- Drive at a consistent speed within the speed limits.

Safety Checklist

- Research your destination and make sure you have packed the right gear.
- Make sure you have up-to-date maps and plan your route.
- Notify someone of your destination and when you intend to return.
- Check the weather. If it is going to be cold or windy, for example, you will need to take extra gear.
- Check all your equipment – tent, accessories, gas stove, gas bottle, mantles, lights, inflatable mattresses, stretchers, water supplies, fire extinguisher, fridge, shower – the lot.
- Have your vehicle and caravan serviced.
- Ensure you have plenty of drinking water.
- Pack hats, sunscreen and long sleeved clothing to protect you from the sun, even while driving.
- Make sure you and your vehicle are prepared for the road conditions you will be travelling on.
- Ensure you follow the safe driving tips provided on the left.
- Consider taking a four-wheel drive training course if you will be travelling off the bitumen, going to remote areas or doing any sand driving.
- If you are going sand driving, learn how to do it properly and take a compressor and shovel. You may also want to take a snatch strap and know how to use it safely and correctly.
- Never try to recover a bogged vehicle by attaching a snatch strap to the bumper, tow ball or manufacturer-supplied 'tie downs'. For safe snatch strap recovery, have rated recovery points fitted on the chassis by a professional.
- Ensure you have a GPS, maps and appropriate communications equipment (mobile phone, satellite phone, UHF radio, etc).
- Consider the availability of power and plan accordingly.
- Book your site ahead of time if possible to avoid disappointment.
- Carry a toolkit and know how to use it.
- Take a first aid course and carry a first aid kit.
- Ensure you have a first aid app on your phone before you leave.

Biosecurity in WA

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT agric.wa.gov.au

Quarantine WA operates border checkpoints as a first line of defence against incursions of unwanted pests, weeds and diseases, which could arrive on freight, cargo and other items brought in from interstate.

Place any item that may pose a biosecurity risk in a quarantine bin or hand them to a quarantine inspector. Under biosecurity legislation, private travellers must declare all organisms and potential carriers immediately on arrival at a checkpoint. Road checkpoints at Kununurra (Victoria Highway – WA/NT border) and Eucla (Eyre Highway – WA/SA border) operate 24 hours a day throughout the year.

Western Australia has strict quarantine measures in place to keep the state free from common pests, weeds and diseases that are present elsewhere.

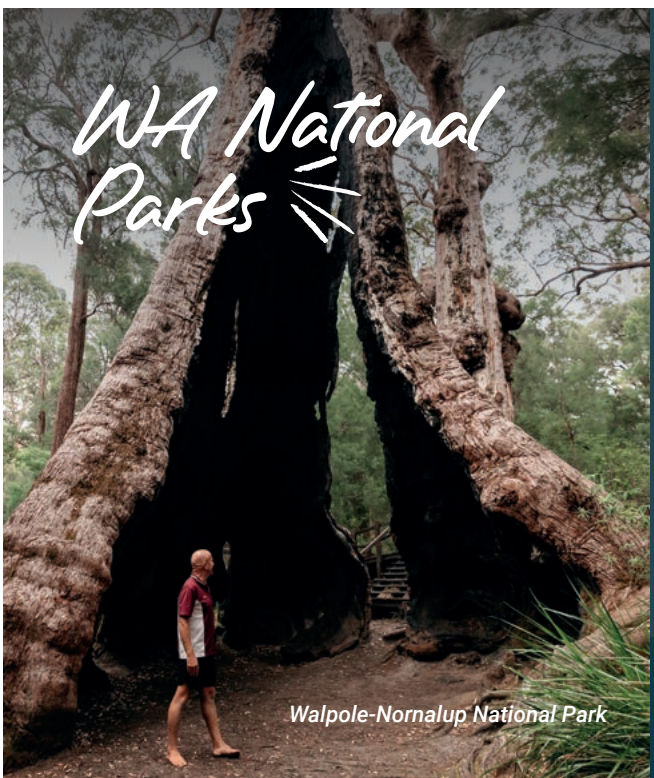

HERE ARE JUST SOME PRESCRIBED POTENTIAL CARRIERS THAT QUARANTINE WA REQUIRES TO BE DECLARED:

- Bees, honey and other hive products
- Animal feed of plant origin other than processed or manufactured feed for dogs, cats and fish
- Plants and/or plant products, including flowers, cuttings, bulbs, fruit and vegetables (excludes canned or cooked plant products)
- Seeds
- Soil
- Absorbent pet litter derived from plant material
- Plant growing and landscaping materials such as potting mix, wood chips and mulch
- Any container used for, or in connection with, agricultural products
- Non-potable water

Can I bring my pet in?

There are no major entry restrictions for cats and dogs. Owners are, however, required to brush the animal(s) to remove any seeds in their fur prior to arrival. There are restrictions for birds, reptiles, fish and frogs, and permits or licences may be required for some of these. For more information please visit agric.wa.gov.au

WESTERN AUSTRALIA'S FAMOUS

Wildflower Spectacle

Wildflowers between Mukinbudin and Bencubbin

Western Australia is home to one of the largest and most spectacular wildflower collections on Earth.

The spring sunshine after the winter rains sees large swathes of the state covered in a sea of wildflowers. More than 12,000 species of wildflowers, over 60 per cent of which are unique to WA, appear as if from nowhere in a spectacular showcase of the region's incredible biodiversity.

Landscapes from coast to forest and city to outback burst into colour during the six-month flowering season, which begins on the vast outback plains of the Pilbara, Goldfields and Coral Coast in July. By September the spectacle moves south to Perth's botanical gardens, nature reserves and national parks, with the season ending in October and November throughout the forests and coastal heaths of the South West.

There are scenic drives, tours and walking trails specifically designed to take advantage of the stunning displays across much of WA. The options to see WA's remarkable wildflowers are endless – and with such long seasons, there's always a good time to see nature at its finest.

Remember to take nothing but photos – picking wildflowers is illegal and can attract a $2,000 fine. Respect private property and don't trespass. Protect crops and prevent the spread of disease by staying out of canola fields.

Visit the iconic Mitchell Plateau where the famous four-tiered Mitchell Falls tumble from one pool to the next. The falls can only be reached by foot or by air, making it one of the most remote and inaccessible places in Australia.

At the end of the Gibb River Road are the boab tree lined streets of Derby. Situated on the tidal mud flats of King Sound, it is a great base from which to explore the Buccaneer Archipelago. Take a short flight or cruise to explore the islands and their beaches, lush rainforests, fringing mangroves and turquoise waters. The Horizontal Falls – where huge tidal movements force masses of seawater through a narrow gap in the high cliff walls – are a must-see.

Alternatively you can take the sealed Great Northern Highway from Kununurra to Derby, which leads you through the outback towns of Halls Creek and Fitzroy Crossing. Marking the northern end of the famous Canning Stock Route, Halls Creek is worth a stop before you further explore Purnululu National Park or venture out to Wolfe Creek Crater, the second largest meteorite crater on Earth.

Between Halls Creek and Fitzroy Crossing are the spectacular Mimbi Caves, where you can stop off for a cool dip in one of the freshwater pools before you explore the spectacular karst cliffs and learn more about the Aboriginal culture and history from a local guide. To visit you must self-drive and book a cultural cave discovery with the Gooniyandi people. The Mimbi Caves campsite has 35 sites plus two Safari Tents, hot showers and barbeque facilities. It is the perfect spot to watch the sunset over the nearby ranges.

Fitzroy Crossing is a great base to explore WA's oldest cave system at Tunnel Creek / Dimalurru National Park and the freshwater pools carved into the Windjana / Bandiln gan Gorge National Park by the Lennard River.

The West Kimberley, Broome & THE DAMPIER PENINSULA

Horizontal Falls, Talbot Bay

The tropical paradise of Broome / Rubibi is home to the iconic Cable Beach where you can take in the stunning sunset views – even from the back of a camel if you wish. It is a growing regional centre and the town has seen extensive investment to its beach front.

Experience the Staircase to the Moon events from Town Beach before you catch a movie at Sun Pictures, the oldest operating outdoor picture theatre in Australia. Spend a leisurely day wandering around the pearl showrooms of Chinatown and soak up the town's cosmopolitan, multicultural history over a beer at the Spinifex Brewery. Take a boat ride out to Willie Creek Pearl Farm and see live oysters suspended in their natural environment. Stop off on the way to explore the tidal lagoon and hundreds of rock pools at Coconut Wells.

BROOME visitbroome.com.au
DERBY australiasboabcountry.com.au

The immense Kimberley tides surge through narrow rock gorges, creating the illusion of a horizontal waterfall.

Gantheaume Point, Broome

Get a local perspective on Broome and Roebuck Bay with a tour from a First Nations guide and learn about Country and culture. Find your own slice of paradise in a private rock pool at Gantheaume Point; just make sure you check the tides and use caution when visiting these spots. While you are there you can also spot the footprints of up to seven different dinosaur species.

The Dampier Peninsula and Cape Leveque stretch 220 kilometres north from Broome. Access to the area is via the sealed Cape Leveque Road, though a 4WD is required for access to many of the local campsites and tours.

Cable Beach, Broome

A short four-wheel drive detour to James Price Point gives you the opportunity to see the iconic red cliffs of the Kimberley meet the white sand beaches and turquoise sea.

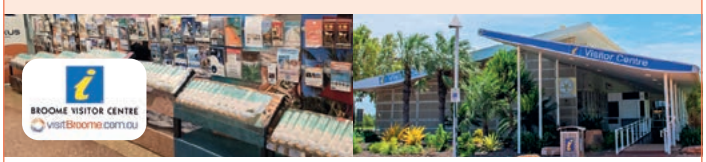

The best time to visit the peninsula is from May to October, with highlights including Mercedes Cove, Sacred Heart Church, Cygnet Bay Pearl Farm and Lombadina on Thomas Bay. Consider spending a night at Pender Bay, a National Heritage listed coastal wilderness.

Let the people of the Dampier Peninsula show you their ancient land and culture. Enter Bardi and Nyul Nyul country and see how First Nations people have lived in harmony with the land for millennia.

Join local guides for spear fishing, mud crabbing, bush and reef walking, snorkelling and kayaking. You can also taste bush foods, discover useful bush medicine and hear about the special relationship between the surrounding land and sea during one of the many local cultural experiences.

Book a scenic flight across the stunning Buccaneer Archipelago and explore the spectacular Horizontal Falls. True adventurers can also take a cruise to the untouched coral gardens, amazing marine life and clear lagoons of the Rowley Shoals Marine Park, hidden away 300 kilometres off the coast.

The Pilbara

Python Pool, Millstream Chichester National Park

Relax with a cooling dip beneath the iconic pindan cliffs of the Pilbara.

You can explore the whole Pilbara region by following the Warlu Way's Coastal, Inland, Geoheritage and Red Dog Ways, which track the path of the Dreamtime sea serpent.

Taking the coastal route between Broome and Port Hedland you will find the spectacular nature reserves of Eighty Mile Beach and Cape Keraudren. Enjoy the untouched splendour of Australia's longest uninterrupted beach. In the summer months you have the opportunity to watch turtles nesting and thousands of migratory birds making the area home.

Immerse yourself in the Pilbara region and its rich tapestry of Aboriginal culture, stunning coastlines, unique outback communities and natural wonders. The mining town of Port Hedland / Marapikurrinya is one of the world's largest and busiest working harbours. Hop on a tour of the port, follow the award-winning Cultural and Heritage Trail or drive to Redbank Bridge for an iconic sunset photo as the sun sets behind salt piles.

Point Samson Peninsula and its surrounding islands are home to spectacular beaches, expansive coral gardens, bountiful fishing and restored heritage buildings. Explore the heritage trails around the ghost town of Cossack and gain a sense of the hardships faced by prospectors during the gold rush.

Karratha is a well serviced regional hub and a great base from which to explore Murujuga National Park at Burrup Peninsula, the Dampier Archipelago and Millstream Chichester National Park.

The Murujuga Cultural Landscape, which achieved UNESCO World Heritage status in 2025, gives a fascinating insight into thousands of years of Aboriginal history and culture, with hundreds of archaeological sites showcasing rock engravings. Burrup Peninsula is home to the largest concentration of petroglyphs, which to the untrained eye may seem like faded images on rock faces, but with expert guidance from local tour providers, reveal almost 50,000 years of recorded evolution.

Hearson's Cove is a small sandy beach with steep rugged hills where you can walk for hundreds of metres on the exposed tidal flats and, if you are lucky, spot turtles in the coral cay.

The Dampier Archipelago's string of 42 pristine islands are a glimpse into an untamed wilderness that is home to sponge gardens, more than 650 species of fish, turtles, dugongs, whales and dolphins. Explore this stunning country with a sunset cruise or book an island exploration, snorkeling or diving tour.

Two hours south from Karratha is the lush desert oasis of Millstream Chichester National Park, with tranquil deep-brown gorges and palm-fringed rock pools fed by underground springs.

Inland you can experience the unique outback communities that shape the Pilbara. Visit the hottest town in Australia at Marble Bar and reward yourself with a cooling dip in one of the many nearby swimming spots.

The modern mining town of Tom Price is nestled in the Hamersley Ranges and offers a great opportunity to recharge and stock up on supplies as you head into one of Australia's most awe-inspiring natural wonders – Karijini National Park.

Billions of years of erosion has slowly carved these spectacular gorges into the Pilbara landscape. WA's second largest national park is a place of incredible beauty and deep spiritual connection for Aboriginal communities. Deep rocky canyons lead to peaceful crystal-clear pools and stunning waterfalls. There is no shortage of spectacular spots to explore, including Dales Gorge, Joffre Gorge, Knox Gorge, Weano Gorge, Fortescue Falls and Oxers Lookout. The park is best visited around late autumn, winter and early spring. Give yourself a few days to take in the full range of impressions that the park offers visitors and enjoy nights unwinding under the star-filled outback skies.

Karijini National Park

You can explore the park on your own or book a tour that will see you scramble, abseil, kayak and tube through the many stunning gorges and beyond. More relaxed tour options are also available.

Newman is home to the renowned East Pilbara Arts Centre which showcases works by Martumili artists from across the Pilbara region. While you are here get a true sense of the scale of WA's vast iron-ore mining operations on a tour of the Mount Whaleback Mine site.

Heading back to the coast, the intriguing town of Onslow offers amazing fishing opportunities and good weather all year round. This town has a colourful past that includes pearl lugging, devastating cyclones and even Japanese bombings during World War II. Take a drive on the beach at Four Mile Creek to drop in a line before you stop off for lunch in the picnic area.

Onslow is one of the few places where you can watch the sun rise and set over water. Between May and September look out for the Staircase to the Moon events where the full moon rises over the exposed tidal flats to create the impression of a staircase leading to the moon.

The stunning Mackerel Islands and the surrounding reef system provide a valuable link for marine life between the Ningaloo Reef to the south and the Dampier Archipelago to the north, making it a fantastic spot for diving and snorkelling. Thevenard Island attracts keen fishers and holidaymakers who love the rustic life. The island is self-catering and you can reach it in your own boat from Onslow or take a light aircraft transfer from Exmouth.

AUSTRALIA'S CORAL COAST

THE NORTH WEST CAPE
Ningaloo Reef

Turquoise Bay, Exmouth

Let yourself drift above coral gardens and marvel at the rich array of marine life beneath the crystal clear waters.

Ningaloo Reef / Nyinggulu, found in the World Heritage listed Ningaloo Reef Marine Park, is the world's largest fringing reef. With more than 500 species of tropical fish living in and around roughly 300 species of coral, Ningaloo Reef is one of the longest nearshore reef systems in the world and can be accessed just by stepping off the beach.

The area is home to Ningaloo's 'big 3' marine creatures: whale sharks, humpback whales and manta rays, as well as an array of other marine life including turtles, dugongs and dolphins. Turquoise Bay is a 50-minute drive from Exmouth and a favourite spot for WA locals. Regarded as one of the state's best beaches, experienced swimmers can snorkel drift along the reef following the strong current from the south of the beach.

Outside the park's sanctuary zones Ningaloo Reef boasts some of Australia's best fishing spots. Fishing is permitted in 'general use' and 'recreational use' zones, in accordance with fishing regulations. For prized catches like tuna, marlin and sailfish you may consider joining a fishing charter.

The reef is serviced by two of WA's favourite holiday spots: the towns of Exmouth and Coral Bay.

Both towns offer plenty of amenities and allow you to hire equipment from local dive shops or join any number of reef-related tours to experience diving, snorkelling, kayaking and cruising in a glass-bottom boat. Tours to swim with whale sharks operate from March to August in Exmouth and from March to late June in Coral Bay. You can also book tours to swim with manta rays year-round and humpback whales from July to October.

Yardie Creek

Carnarvon Foreshore

For those wanting to get an even deeper sense of these majestic waters, the Exmouth Navy Pier has been voted one of the world's top ten shore dives. Dive Ningaloo has the licence for scuba dives there.

A short drive from Exmouth is Vlamingh Head Lighthouse, an absolutely amazing place to watch a sunset.

Just 40 kilometres from Exmouth in Cape Range National Park is the remnant of an ancient reef thrust upwards by the movement of the Earth's crust. Its limestone ranges form breathtaking canyons framed by pristine beaches. Take a guided boat tour between the sheer cliffs along Yardie Creek, keeping an eye out for wildlife such as ospreys and, if you are lucky, the rare black-footed wallabies hiding in the cliff walls. Hiking in Cape Range is most comfortable during the cooler months from April to September and trails include Mandu Mandu Gorge, Shothole Canyon and Yardie Creek Trail.

Located between Coral Bay and Exmouth, Bullara Station is a working cattle station that offers a glimpse into outback life, perfect for an overnight station stay or a delicious morning tea.

Situated between Coral Bay and Carnarvon are the beachside hideaways of Quobba Station, Red Bluff and Gnaraloo. Enjoy worldclass surfing, windsurfing, kite surfing and some of the state's best fishing spots. Between June and November the towering cliffs offer a great view of humpback whales migrating along the coast, and from December to March you can see turtles nesting and hatching.

Further south, you will find the awe-inspiring blowholes where powerful swells force the ocean water up through sea caves, shooting jets of water into the air.

The area around Carnarvon provides a wonderful opportunity to recharge and enjoy the region's famous produce and gourmet delights. Enjoy a picnic lunch at the Fascine, a beautiful bay lined with coconut and cotton palms. To really get in the foodie spirit pick up a map of the 'Fruit Loop' Drive Trail from the visitor centre and stock up on fresh fruit, vegetables and seafood direct from local vendors.

Explore the mangroves and marine life as you walk or ride the coffee pot train along the One Mile Jetty, a great fishing spot. Learn about the little-known role Carnarvon played in the NASA manned space program and worldwide telecommunications at the interactive Space and Technology Museum.

Shark Bay has been identified by UNESCO as a biodiversity hotspot. It is home to a vast range of unique and endangered plant and animals species, as well as 35 per cent of Australia's total bird species. There are cultural tours available that will give you a deeper insight into the area and teach you about Shark Bay's local Malgana people and their connection to the place they call Gutharraguda.

The town of Denham is an ideal base while you explore Shark Bay. The friendly coastal town offers safe swimming beaches and all manner of amenities. Get an informative and interactive insight into the region's history and natural wonders at the Shark Bay Discovery Centre.

Shell Beach is a 120 kilometre stretch of snow-white beach made up of millions of tiny shells. The beach is a must-stop spot for photos and a swim in the clear, shallow waters.

Shell Beach, Shark Bay

You will notice the shells are used in the construction of some of the area's most iconic buildings. Stop off to see the world's oldest living fossils, known as stromatolites, at Hamelin Pool.

The spectacular clifftops at Eagle Bluff offer breathtaking views across the World Heritage Area. Look out for turtles, manta rays, humpback whales and dugongs swimming below.

Those looking to get off the beaten track can enjoy a four-wheel driving adventure along the dramatic red cliffs and white sandy beaches of Francois Peron National Park. Go fishing, explore the former sheep station and take a dip in the hot pools at Peron Homestead. Across the water, Dirk Hartog Island is home to loggerhead turtles and is the first recorded landing site of Europeans on Western Australian shores. Experienced four-wheel drivers can get there by vehicle barge from Steep Point. Charter boat and air tours also run from Denham and the island has camping, lodge and cabin accommodation.

Steep Point is the western-most point of WA, as well as being one of the world's best land-based fishing spots. It is a great vantage point to see the Zuytdorp Cliffs, which tower 170 metres above sea level.

Kalbarri

Nature's Window in Kalbarri National Park

Nature has carved this window looking out over millions of years of geological history.

Kalbarri is a relaxed holiday town popular with WA locals and visitors alike. Nestled at the mouth of the Murchison River and boasting a stunning coastline, the town is an absolute dream for water lovers of all kinds with ample opportunities for fishing, surfing, snorkelling and kayaking.

The Kalbarri Skywalk offers a spectacular view over the Murchison River Gorge in Kalbarri National Park, where nature has carved out the layers of coloured rock. Hike one of the many well-marked trails throughout the park and stop for a photo at the iconic Nature's Window. If you are feeling more adventurous book a canoe tour along the river or try your hand at abseiling. From July until October hundreds of species of wildflowers burst into bloom and transform the park into a sea of colour.

The national park also extends 13 kilometres along the coast with protected swimming bays nestled among plunging coastal cliffs. Take the short drive from town or better still, follow the walk and cycle path that runs along the coast to explore secluded beaches, surf breaks and whale watching spots. For a different way to explore the coastline take a guided tour to ride a quad bike or buggy along Wagoe Beach.

Just a little further south is the famous Pink Lake at Hutt Lagoon, an iconic photo stop for many visitors. Featured on TV and in advertising all over the world, the lake's carotenoid-producing algae changes colour from deep red to bright pink depending on the time of day. The lake is easily accessible by car, or alternatively air tours are a fantastic way to see the lake from above.

For a relaxing beachside getaway, head to the nearby towns of Port Gregory and Horrocks whose sheltered waters are perfect for fishing, surfing, diving and windsurfing.

Geraldton

The Abrolhos Islands, and their surrounding coral reefs, are among the state's most unique and diverse marine areas.

Abrolhos Islands

The town of Geraldton is a rapidly growing regional centre that offers everything you need to recharge and re-stock before your next adventure. It is well worth staying for a while to indulge in some of the seafood that the town is famous for. It is particularly vibrant around the summer festival season when a range of events for all tastes bring colour to the town.

Meet friendly local sea lions and relax on one of the beautiful beaches, then unwind into the evening at one of the many establishments along the thriving foreshore. The HMAS Sydney II Memorial, built in honour of the sailors who lost their lives off the coast in 1941, provides stunning views.

Sixty kilometres west of Geraldton lies the Abrolhos Islands, an archipelago of 122 islands clustered into three main groups: the Wallabi Group, Easter Group and Pelsaert Group. Thought to be named from a Portuguese phrase meaning 'open your eyes', the islands have claimed many shipwrecks over the centuries, including the Batavia in 1629, which you can learn about at the Geraldton Museum. The Islands offer activities to suit a variety of interests, including fishing and cray fishing, swimming, snorkelling and diving. Go bird watching, see marine and wildlife including sea lions, dolphins, wallabies and lizards or let one of the many tour operators show you the spectacular islands on a scenic tour from a boat or the air.

Twenty minutes south of Geraldton is the charming pioneering town of Greenough, with renowned history, bird-watching, walking, fishing and the beautiful Greenough River with its dramatically leaning trees.

Between July and October wildflower season turns the entire region into a dazzling display of colour. Head inland to the historic town of Yalgoo and see meadows of white, pink, cream and yellow flowers carpet the outback. Flowers grow all over, and often right on the roadside, so you don't have to walk far to see them in all their glory.

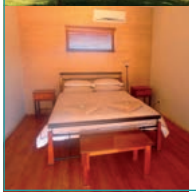

A great scenic drive for wildflower fans is Chapman Valley, just north of Geraldton, where bright pink, blue and white everlastings colour the landscape during the season. The area between Nanson and Yuna is where you will find some of the most stunning wildflower shows.

Indian Ocean Drive

Cervantes Town, Thirsty Point

These laid-back coastal towns offer plenty of activities for adventure lovers, families and those just wanting to relax.

The twin coastal towns of Dongara and Port Denison are a haven for lovers of sailing, surfing, fishing, windsurfing and swimming. There are two main routes you can take as you travel further south toward Perth. The Brand Highway (Highway 1) will take you inland and is particularly colourful during wildflower season.

If you choose the coastal route along Indian Ocean Drive, you will enjoy ocean views as you make your way past delightful coastal towns and the world-famous Pinnacles Desert in Nambung National Park where otherworldly limestone pillars rise from the sand. The Pinnacles are one of Australia's most unique and fascinating natural landscapes, formed 25,000 to 30,000 years ago. Thousands of these natural limestone structures, standing up to five metres high, create a truly unique vista.

Jurien Bay and Green Head are famous for their delicious fresh seafood and have become favourite family holiday destinations. Surrounded by stunning national parks full of native flora and fauna, the towns provide something for all ages. Interact with seals, sea lions and dolphins in the Jurien Bay Marine Park, explore the underwater snorkel and dive trail, go fishing or tick skydiving off your bucket list. Between the towns is Lesueur National Park which blooms full of wildflowers during the winter months. Another hidden gem in this area is the Stockyard Gully Caves (four-wheel drive access only), a fascinating group of limestone caves that lead to an underwater river system.

Sample Cervantes' famous western rock lobster at the Lobster Shack, where you can also take a tour through a processing plant. Follow the Cervantes Art Trail for a slice of culture before joining a fishing charter, lobster catching or sea lion tour.

Adrenaline junkies will love the coastal towns of Lancelin and Ledge Point. Lancelin's giant sand dunes are a mecca for thrill seekers. You can sand board, four-wheel drive, or ride motorbikes and dune buggies across the white dunes. Beautiful Moore River is a favourite destination for family getaways and is perfect for kayaking, fishing, swimming and surfing.

GOLDEN OUTBACK australiasgoldenoutback.com

The Goldfields

Lake Lefroy, near Kambalda

Expansive red earth plains, salt lakes and hardy scrub make for a truly unique landscape.

Kalgoorlie-Boulder is the largest city in the Australian outback and provides visitors with a fascinating insight into gold mining past and present. Historic buildings, character pubs and even the brothels remain more than a century after the first gold rush.

Visit the underground Gold Vault with its collection of gold and ornate jewellery from the era, before you head out to Australia's largest open cut gold mine, the Super Pit, which reveals the sheer magnitude of the endeavour to find gold. To experience hands-on gold prospecting, consider booking a tour to learn the finer points of using a detector at their prospecting camp.

Just north of Kalgoorlie, accessed from the old mining town of Menzies, you will find the world-renowned installation of cast iron sculptures by Antony Gormley. The collection of 51 sculptures dotted over the stark white salt bed of Lake Ballard is considered one of the largest outdoor art galleries in the world. Camp under clear starry skies and wake up to a magic morning light that creates a visual spectacle of the red island mounds across the dry lake.

The fascinating and somewhat eerie ghost town of Gwalia, near Leonora, reveals more of the region's rich gold rush heritage. The majestic State Hotel, several miners cottages and commercial buildings now lay abandoned after the mine closed in 1963. Hoover House, built in 1898, was home to former mine manager and eventual 31st President of the USA, Herbert Hoover.

Coolgardie was the birthplace of the gold rush that fuelled the largest mass migration of people in Australia's history and retains much of its pioneering heritage charms.

The Kookynie Grand Hotel is a quintessential outback pub rich in hospitality and local history that brings visitors from far and wide.

The town of Laverton is the starting point of the Outback Way, which links the Northern Goldfields with Alice Springs in the Northern Territory and Winton in Queensland. Here you can explore the fascinating Great Beyond Visitor Centre, home of the Explorers Hall of Fame.

Norseman is the gateway to the vast Nullarbor Plain. Established in 1894 following the discovery of gold, you can get a sense of the local Ngadju culture and Norseman's mining heritage by taking the Town Precinct tour, a 30-minute self-guided walk and visual experience.

Lake Ballard, near Menzies

The stark and unique landscape of the Nullarbor Plain sits atop the world's biggest single piece of limestone measuring 200,000 square kilometres. Crossing the plain is considered one of the world's greatest road adventures, with plenty to see along the way. The area is extremely popular with four-wheel drive enthusiasts keen to explore the rugged granite outcrops, ancient salt lakes and stunning displays of wildflowers.

Possibly the world's most unique golf course, the Nullarbor Links spans 1,365 kilometres between Kalgoorlie and Ceduna in South Australia. Eighteen participating towns or roadhouses along the Eyre Highway each have a single hole featuring a tee, a green, a fairway consisting of rugged outback terrain and golfing equipment available for hire.

The region is also developing a vibrant arts and culture scene set against the dramatic backdrop of red outback plains. Amid the historical museums, ghost towns and self-drive adventure trails you will find multicultural festivals celebrating connection to land and language, large scale public art works, sculptures and spectacular galleries.

Cocklebiddy is famous for its cave systems, which are among the largest in the world. Do a spot of fishing or whale watching (in season) at Twilight Cove, located 32 kilometres south. Near Caiguna, you will find the longest stretch of straight road in the world – all 146.6 kilometres of it – commonly known as the 90 Mile Straight.

Take a detour off the Eyre Highway and visit the Great Australian Bight to take in the amazing views from the 70-metre high cliffs along the remote coastline. The Eyre Bird Observatory is home to more than 240 species of birds, many of which are rare or endangered. The observatory is housed in an old stone building nestled between leafy woodlands and striking white dunes.

Mundrabilla is the site of the biggest meteorite ever found in Australia. Explore the old telegraph station ruins and enjoy the ocean views from the top of the escarpment at Eucla.

The Nullarbor also marks the start of the Great Western Woodlands, the largest and healthiest temperate woodland remaining on Earth, which runs all the way across the Goldfields to the Wheatbelt.

CHASING THE SUN
GOLF TOURNAMENT
The "Chasing the Sun Golf Tournament" runs annually and is arguably the rarest and most unique golf event in the world. This Australian golfing adventure runs for 10 days every year, commencing in Ceduna South Australia and ending in Kalgoorlie Western Australia.

THE Wheatbelt

The PUBLIC Silo Trail has created WA's largest outdoor art gallery.

Kyle Hughes-Odgers artwork, Merredin

The Wheatbelt is a collection of vast farm lands and friendly towns bursting with country charm. Wander the quaint main streets and meet the locals at some of the character outback pubs. Gain a fascinating insight into WA's pioneering past as you explore the historic town centres and mile upon mile of golden fields.

This region is home to the PUBLIC Silo Trail which has seen grain silos transformed with stunning murals painted by renowned artists from around the world. Follow the trail through Northam, Merredin, Newdegate and Pingrup.

In the southern part of the Wheatbelt around Narrogin and Wandering there is an emerging wine region. To the east the historic town of Westonia is where the Goldfields meets the Wheatbelt.

Float in the salt pool near the town of Hyden before you explore the world-famous Wave Rock / Katter Kich. Standing 15 metres high and 100 metres long, it is a sight to behold. Close by is Hippo's Yawn rock and Mulka's Cave which hosts a collection of 450 ancient rock paintings.

You can find other granite outcrops and rocks nearby including Elachbutting Rock and Beringbooding Rock near Mukinbudin, and Kokerbin Rock near the town of Bruce Rock. The Dryandra Woodland is the largest remnant of original woodland in Australia's Western Wheatbelt and is known as one of the world's flora and fauna hotspots. From June to early November you will be surrounded by a sea of dazzling colour as WA's wildflowers bloom in their billions. Check at the local visitor centres to find out what's in bloom and where.

Challenge your four-wheel driving skills with a detour along the Holland Track or head west to take the more comfortable, but definitely no less quirky, Tin Horse Highway from Kulin.

Gascoyne & Murchison

Wooleen Station

The expansive outback cattle stations provide a rare glimpse into rural life.

The vast and dramatic vistas of the Gascoyne provide a spectacular backdrop to the sea of wildflowers that transform the landscape every year. The region's ancient landscapes are full of stories and rich in Aboriginal culture.

Get a real outback experience and disconnect from the everyday by booking a WA station stay. It is a unique way to experience the vast stations, with a whole range of accomodation types and activities available.

Test your driving skills on some of the challenging and scenic drive trails along the Gunbarrel Highway and Canning Stock Route.

Millions of years of erosion have etched out the rock formations, valleys and cliff faces of the Kennedy Range National Park. Further east you can see Mount Augustus (Burringurrah to the Wadjari people) loom 850 metres above the surrounding landscape. It is the biggest 'rock' in the world and is about twice the size of Uluru. You can see petroglyphs up close on walking routes around its base.

The stunning Margaret River region has a proud and well deserved reputation as a paradise for lovers of fine food and even finer wine. Over 150 wineries, boutique breweries, award-winning restaurants, art galleries and fresh produce makers will leave you spoilt for choice.

A cellar door experience at one (or several) of the wineries is a must and you can let someone else do the driving with one of the many tours available. The region is internationally acclaimed for its Chardonnay, Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Shiraz. A growing crop of makers is experimenting with bold new flavours that are well worth exploring. There is also a burgeoning distilling scene with a host of delicious spirits being produced, many using native botanicals for a truly unique flavour.

There are ample opportunities to sample delectable local fresh produce, from berries, fudge, preserves and olive oils to a large assortment of gourmet lines.

Arts and crafts form an integral part of the Margaret River region's character, and can be seen in the numerous galleries around town and throughout the surrounding areas.

Picturesque forests, rivers and rolling hills beautifully frame the town. Explore the tracks meandering along the river and leading all the way to the coast, walk a section of the Cape to Cape Track, or join a bike or e-bike tour.

To get the full experience you can choose from guided tours that include canoeing, catching marron, a private winery lunch and a trip to the Wilyabrup Cliffs.

The stunning coastline around Margaret River has been a surfing mecca for generations. There are over 40 surf spots to choose from, depending on conditions. The famed Surfers Point at Prevelly is a great spot to watch surfers take on the ocean.

A huge system of over 150 spectacular limestone caves lies beneath the surface of the Leeuwin Naturaliste Ridge. The best known and most accessible of these can be found along the aptly named Caves Road. Mammoth Cave is a natural time capsule, home to ancient fossil remains, while Jewel Cave is the biggest show cave in WA. Lake Cave is a pristine chamber with a tranquil lake reflecting the stunning formations.

In the Boranup Forest, between Caves Road and the coast, towering karri trees dwarf the road beneath. Karri is the third tallest tree in the world and this beautiful regrowth forest is just over 100 years old, with many of the trees reaching upwards of 60 metres.

Continue along Caves Road towards Augusta to meet the stingrays that regularly come close to shore at Hamelin Bay. The clear waters of this wide, sandy bay offer safe swimming and beach fishing opportunities, as well as snorkelling and diving amongst the shipwrecks and caves just off-shore.

Nearby, Australia's tallest mainland lighthouse at Cape Leeuwin sits on a spectacular peninsula overlooking the meeting point between the Indian and Southern Oceans. You can spot humpback and southern right whales as they migrate along the coast from June through to September.

Southern Forests & Valleys

Wind your way through ancient forests and up majestic peaks to take in the views.

Stirling Range National Park

The winding roads through the Blackwood River Valley will take you past lush rolling hills, ancient jarrah forests and charming historic towns. Take the Villages in the Valley road trip that connects the quirky town of Balingup, the character-filled village of Nannup, and Bridgetown with its delightful rustic charm. Stop along the way to enjoy farm gate experiences, pick fresh fruit from the orchards and sample a wine or two.

Further south along the South West Highway, majestic karri and jarrah trees frame the town of Manjimup. As well as offering great bushwalking opportunities, the area is also often regarded as the 'gourmet food bowl' of WA, with a wide variety of fine fresh produce available including chestnuts, cherries, ginseng, green tea, marron, perch, trout and – most famously – the winter black truffle. During the winter months you can also go on tours through some of the truffle farms.

The old timber town of Pemberton is a great base from which to explore the long, meandering trails throughout the surrounding forest, which offers some of the best hiking and mountain biking opportunities in WA. The town is a favourite getaway spot, especially in the winter months, with ample opportunities to rug up in front of a fire with a delicious meal and a great glass of wine.

Several stunning national parks surround Pemberton, including Gloucester, Warren and Beedelup National Parks, where freshwater streams, waterfalls and rivers are hidden amongst the dense karri forests. Near the small town of Northcliffe, the Shannon National Park is set in some of the most magnificent karri country in WA.

A visit to Windy Harbour to take in the limestone and basalt cliffs that hug the coast is well worth adding to your itinerary. The surrounding D'Entrecasteaux National Park covers 118,000 hectares and offers a selection of rugged and secluded four-wheel drive tracks.

Four-wheel drive enthusiasts will delight in challenging themselves along the Yeagarup Dunes, whose white sands rise metres above the canopy of the surrounding karri forest. The challenging journey across the dunes will reward you with access to the Yeagarup Beach.

Surrounded by the Walpole Wilderness Area, the town of Walpole is located on the southern coast, a vast natural and wild landscape encompassing tranquil forests, imposing granite peaks, peaceful rivers, thriving wetlands and remarkable beaches.

Mandurah & THE Peel Region

Lake Clifton Thrombolites

The ancient thrombolites at Lake Clifton are among the planet's oldest life forms.

With stunning beaches, natural beauty and unique wildlife, Mandurah / Mandjoogoordap has over 134 square kilometres of calm inland waterways. The estuary, which is twice the size of Sydney Harbour, is home to wetlands of international importance. With an abundance of aquatic and nature activities, waterfront dining and a vibrant arts and culture scene, you will soon see why locals and tourists alike flock here.

The Giants of Mandurah, by world-renowned Danish artist Thomas Dambo, are wooden sculptures which are cleverly hidden around Mandurah in a free-to-view interactive outdoor exhibition that requires you to find them by following a trail of clues.

To start your giant hunt pop into the Mandurah Visitor Centre for your map and clues. If you would prefer to have some company (and a little help) when going on your Giant adventure, you can choose from a selection of guided boat, coach, train express and e-bike tours.

Experience the delightful country charm of Pinjarra and learn about the region's history at the Edenvale Heritage Precinct. The impressive jarrah forest around Dwellingup offers fantastic hiking, mountain biking and swimming as well as a treetops adventure course for those looking for an even more action packed experience.

Canoe down the Murray River at Lane Poole Reserve where you can stop off for a cooling dip before you take a trip back in time on board the vintage steam train at Hotham Valley Railway. Off-road enthusiasts will love testing themselves on four-wheel drive tracks such as the Captain Fawcett Track, which runs along old rail embankments where the timber trains once hauled trees.

A little to the south-east is Lake Navarino, also known as Waroona Dam, a man-made lake that is a favourite destination for water skiing and freshwater fishing. The area boasts great four-wheel driving and bushwalking.
